

Indiana University Southeast Writing Project

2011 ADVANCED INSTITUTE “Writing Toward Home”

The Complete AI Experience.....$125

June 20th-24th, 27th-29th

Enjoy eight days of professional development activities including a demonstration lesson day, a one day seminar with a renowned author, a writing marathon culminating at local bookstore, and a writing retreat to Mount St. Francis. Fee includes two professional texts for level 2 teacher consultants and one professional text for level 3 teacher consultants.

The Complete AI Experience with Graduate Level College Credit.....$125 (plus tuition)

June 20th-24th, 27th-29th

Earn three hours of graduate level college credit from IUS by attending all eight days of AI, submitting the required course work, and paying tuition. Partial scholarships will be offered.

Author Day w/ Georgia Heard..... $35

June 22nd 9:00am-3:30pm

Attend a writing seminar led by a renowned author and take away new writing invitations and strategies that can enhance your classroom instruction.

Demonstration Lesson Day..... $30

June 23rd 9:00am-3:30pm

Participate in a variety of demonstration lessons and roundtable discussions that will be facilitated by knowledgeable teacher consultants from the IUSWP.

Demonstration Lesson/Author Day Combination..... $55

June 22nd & 23rd 9:00am-3:30pm

Join the institute for both specialty days and save!

Writer's Retreat..... $70

June 27th 1:00pm-?/June 28th 9:00am-?/June 29th 9:00am-1:00pm

Kick back and relax at the beautiful and conveniently located Mount St. Francis. Be a day tripper or an overnight, nonstop writer. The retreat will include 5 meals, including a TC reunion picnic on Tuesday night. Plan on a wealth of independent writing time, writing invitations that you can use with students, opportunities for collaboration with other teacher consultants, peer response time, and discussions/response time with a published author as well as with publisher Kate Larkin of Motes Books.

Contact Dr. Kevin Bailey, iuswp@ius.edu to reserve your place in the institute and begin receiving information about the Pre-Institute day, Thursday April 14th. Pre-Institute surprise in store for TC's!
